

MEDIA REGULATION

1. Journalists, photographers and cameramen, among others, while accredited MEDIA elements in the competition or the inherent infrastructure in the European Cup Club Seniors (ECCCS) will only be granted prior approval and accreditation by those responsible for the organization;
2. Accredited MEDIA elements should respect fully and steadily the indications from the responsible for organizing the ECCCS, security, law enforcement officers and referees responsible for the regulation and validation of the competition, under the security plan defined by these entities;
3. Accredited MEDIA elements will have to use the MEDIA vest (provided by the organization), being allowed to stay in the areas forbidden to the general public, under your responsibility, in accordance with the term of responsibility signed by him. Still, the indications from the responsible for organizing the ECCCS, security, law enforcement officers and judges responsible for the regulation and validation of competition should be fully respected at any time;
4. Accredited MEDIA elements without MEDIA vest are not allowed to stay in the areas forbidden to the general public. Failure to comply with this rule will void the accreditation;
5. Accredited MEDIA elements should tailor his action, at the moment of the events, according to the safety standards. Your security in the places of throw events just depends thereof;
6. The organization will give indications about the local not allowed to take pictures at the accreditation moment.
7. The organization recommends conducting an imaging management plan, according to the locations and times of the various events, to the circulation spaces be carried out properly and carefully.

Cumulatively to the items above and still resulting from this Regulation - to the particular attention of the accredited MEDIA elements:

8. Avoid remain close to fireman cars, ambulances or commissioners, because they may start their march without notice;
9. Choose the safest location to capture the images. Keep yourself prepared for unexpected situations. Do not ride in the throwing areas , as well as the fall zones;
10. Avoid the circulation in nearby areas during the course of the releases;
11. If you need to review the result of their work (photos, videos, etc.) should not do it near the local at greatest risk (local implements fall). Choose a safe place;
12. Do not cross the local of the events properly delimited;
13. In case of any doubt you should go to the TIC, to resolve the same;
14. Your signature on the disclaimer at the time of accreditation confirms that took full knowledge of the Media Safety Rules, assuming full responsibility for their actions and posture;
15. A breach of any of the Media Safety Rules may be enough reason for cancellation of accreditation.

By LOC (Local Organising Comitee)

TERM OF RESPONSIBILITY

_____ (name),
born at ____-____-____, carrier Identification Document (Identification Document /Passport/Other) n.º _____, issued on ____-____-____ by _____, valid until ____-____-____ resident in _____, for appropriate action and at their own responsibility DECLARES:

1. Knowing the Media Regulation stipulated by the organization ECCCS 2016 to be held in Leiria, in May 28;
2. Know the risks associated with entry / capture images in places not stipulated for the general public during the event;
3. be responsible for any accident and / or act that might result from a failure to comply with safety standards established by the Internal Regulation of the Media.

Leiria, _____, 2016

O DECLARANTE

(signing as identification document)

This disclaimer is valid for one (1) year after the date of signature. The present Regulation was studied further and approved under the ECCCS Safety Plan by the competent entities present.

Attach:

Photocopy of the Identification document.